

National Biodiversity Month

30 ways to connect with nature this September

1

Commit to spending 20 minutes a day in nature

2

Spot some wildflowers at Hallett Headland

3

Download the iNaturalist app

4

Nominate your favourite tree for Tree of the Month

5

Go for a walk along the Coastal Walkway

6

Identify one plant using the iNaturalist app

7

National Threatened Species day

8

Visit a local park or reserve

9

Read this month's Green Thymes Environment e-newsletter

10

Use the Frog Spotter app to record frog calls at local wetlands

11

Picnic in a local green space

12

Enjoy a BBQ at Glade Crescent Reserve

13

Join Friends of Lower Field River working bee. 9:30 am to 11:30 am

14

Join Friends of Sturt River Landcare working bee from 9:30 am to 12 pm!

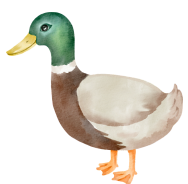

15

Walk, run or ride along the Sturt River-Warripari trail

16

Watch ducks and birds at Oaklands Wetland

17

Do a mini beach clean up

18

Join Friends of Upper Field River working bee from 9 am to 11 am.

19

Find out how to create a wildlife friendly garden

20

Walk or run Oaklands Estate Parkrun

21

Visit the huge River Red Gum tree at Kenton Avenue Reserve

22

Go to Marino or Hallett Cove Conservation Park

23

Find Narrow-leaf Fox Tails (Ptilotus angustifolius) at Marine Parade Reserve

24

Find the tree tags at Oaklands and Warriparinga Wetlands

25

Join the Friends of Warriparinga working bee today from 10 am to 12 pm!

26

Nature Festival begins! Head along to the opening night

27

Watch a Green Adelaide webinar via their YouTube channel.

28

Plan a morning to weed your garden, and take action

29

Learn how to use your green bin and reduce food waste

30

Spend time on or near the water at Hallett Cove or Marino